Ruinart Blanc de Blancs, France/Champagne 33

The Oldest Champagne house in Champagne region with their most iconic Blanc de Blancs champagne, which undergoes a full Malolactic fermentation, therefore is one of the smoothest, finest champagne in the world.

Bonnaire Bergeres-Les-Vertus Les Harengs Premier Cru Blanc de Blancs 2022, France/Champagne 29

Since 1932, Bonnaire has been based in one of Champagne's finest crus, the village of Cramant. One of the first grower-champagne house's, often harvesting slightly later than neighbors to achieve roundness and minimize dosage. ''Les Harengs'' produced from sun blessed Bergeres-Les-Vertus terroir's chardonnay grapes, also paying homage to an old barter currency in the region- herrings.

Baltvīni/ White Wines 150ml.

Domaine Jean Bourdy BIO Cotes du Jura "Savagnin" 2023 Blanc, France/Jura 21

Jura's distinctive marl and limestone soils give Savagnin its fresh, mineral character. Aged for 48 months in old oak barrels, this expressive white develops elegant notes of citrus peel, toasted nuts and ripe yellow fruit, with a subtle oxidative complexity and a long, saline finish.

Sarkanvīni/ Red Wines 150ml.

Elio Altare Barolo 2021, Italy/Piedmonte 30

A legendary wine producer, with a legendary story regarding the war among the "Traditionalists" and "Modernists" of the wine region. Altare makes effective, powerful wines with excellent freshness and tannic grip. An excellent companion with our steak selection or just grab a glass and head to our cigar lounge.
