Veino is a unique and colourful wine bar in Tallinn's Old Town, open since 2022.

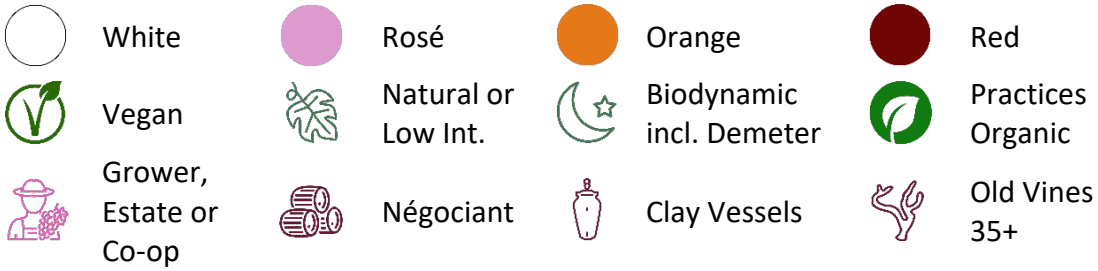

Our objective is to give you a wide variety of choices from sparkling to orange or regular to natural, which is why we are happy to offer almost all our nearly 490 wines by the glass*.

Availability does vary because of a limited stock, so this menu is more of a guideline, and your sommelier always knows best.

Much of our selection is available for take-away purchases at a 25% discount!

The following symbols may or may not help with reading this list. In many cases details are assumed based on the producer's overall philosophy and tasting notes.

For dietary or certification purposes, it's best to double and triple check.

 Unless otherwise noted, the house pour is always 15 cl and there is no price difference between a 75 cl standard bottle or five glasses of love! Exceptions are marked in the list.*

 If we don't have your favourite wine, talk to the team, we might be able to make it happen for your next visit.*

* Prices include VAT but no gratuity.*

How do we do it?

Veino has an insane and unique concept of offering you a taste or a glass from nearly every bottle, so you can always go on a wine adventure with us, without committing to a bottle. We could not do that without our love-hate relationship with Coravin.

Here is the secret.

In the late 1990s, medical device inventor Greg Lambrecht faced a classic wine lover's dilemma: his pregnant wife had stopped drinking, leaving him stranded with prized bottles he couldn't finish before oxygen ruined them. Refusing to let good vintages spoil, he retreated to his workshop with an unconventional idea borrowed from pediatric surgery.

Instead of pulling the cork, Lambrecht designed a slender, non-coring needle capable of slipping between the bark's natural elastic fibers without tearing them. By injecting heavy, inert argon gas into the bottle, the device built gentle internal pressure to siphon a single glass of wine back up through the hollow conduit. Once the needle was withdrawn, the resilient cork simply squeezed shut, sealing the remaining liquid away from the air as if entirely untouched.

The ultimate test came years later in the storied cellars of Bordeaux and Burgundy. Lambrecht handed blind tasting glasses to fiercely skeptical winemakers, pouring samples from bottles he had secretly accessed years earlier alongside freshly pulled controls of the identical vintage. The vintners swirled, sniffed, and tasted, yet none could distinguish the preserved pour from the newly uncorked bottle—proving the cork's quiet illusion had worked.

Veino rarely has bottles hanging around that long, but we are committed to your new experiences, so kudoz to Lambrect!

If you really love love the concept and have a good selection of wine at home, or need a gift for a wine lover, then ask at the bar, we can get you a nice burgundy coloured Coravin Timeless Six+ Wine Preservation System for EUR 290 😉.
